HISTORY

The Monday Players drama society is based at Escrick and our venue, recently refurbished, is the village hall, where we have produced live theatre for the last eighteen years.

Members come from a wide area, ten miles radius or more, including York and Selby, but we also have the fellowship of family, friends and many other supporters who like to be involved not only in productions but also social events such as theatre trips, summer garden party and Christmas celebrations. We are a welcoming, enthusiastic and supportive group; we have high standards of performance and production; we enjoy immensely the recreational benefits of our activities.

In December 2013 we shall be celebrating our 20th anniversary and fortieth production since our foundation, when a small group decided to perform Season's Greetings by Alan Ayckbourn; the stage, set and technical effects were very modest indeed.

When We Are Married 1996

Habeas Corpus 2011

Since 1993 we have prospered, developed and maintained our stage craft, technical expertise and the acquisition of equipment, costume, props and furniture. We stage two productions a year – May and November – and enjoy the patronage of many people in the area.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Hello and welcome to 'Key For Two' on behalf of myself and all of The Monday Players.

Once again we have gathered over the past few months to provide our local community with a little live theatre. Our director for this show – Sadie Ashton – has been working tirelessly alongside her team to produce something we are very proud of and something that you, our audience, will hopefully enjoy.

Some of our members enjoy performing, others enjoy being part of our production teams and some enjoy both! Every production provides opportunities to act, to get involved in set construction, become part of the stage crew, to assist with transport, lighting, sound, special effects, publishing, front of house, or indeed, helping to make a welcome cuppa at one of our rehearsals. We have enjoyed immensely our Sunday and Monday evenings over the past months and this week now allows us to share the fun and laughter (we hope!) with all of you.

So sit back and enjoy the show. For this production proceeds from the raffle will include a donation to the St. Helen's Church Roof Appeal here in the village. Thank you once again for your continued support and attendance – and we look forward to seeing you next time....!

I would like to also take this opportunity to thank our sponsors – your support is greatly appreciated.

Synopsis

The play is set in Harriet's flat in Brighton

Act One

Scene One – early morning
Scene Two – late morning
Scene Three – mid afternoon

Act Two

Scene One – later that day

In this wickedly amusing play Harriet solves her financial problems by entertaining two married gentlemen on different days of the week.

The scheme faces collapse when her friend, Anne, arrives, hotly pursued by her husband; one of Harriet's lovers is confined to bed with a sprained ankle and the second lover turns up unexpectedly, closely followed by two irate wives in search of their itinerant husbands!
